CERF Fellowship Scheme

The CERF Fellowship scheme will renew for its third iteration in Easter 2018. We aim to recruit a new cohort of 10 Fellows. The positions will be advertised on the CJBS and University websites in January 2018, and appointments made in February 2018.

The current cohort includes Fellows from various faculties including CJBS, StasLab, Economics and Land Economy; The fellowship scheme is open to lecturers and senior lecturers who do research into some aspect of finance, and applications will be welcome from all departments of the University of Cambridge.

Publications

In this book, Geoffrey Whittington provides a unique survey of the theory and practice of measurement in financial accounts. It seeks to define and illustrate alternative methods, using simple numerical examples, and to analyse their theoretical properties. Also, it summarises extensive empirical evidence and the historical development of ideas and practice.

Appointments

Bart Lambrecht (CERF Director) has been appointed Co-Editor in Chief of the Journal of Corporate Finance, and reappointed research fellow of the Centre for Economic Policy.

Upcoming CERF Events

CERF in the City

The next CERF in the City event is due to take place on 28th February 2018. The event will feature three speakers from CERF, who will be joined by discussants from the City. The event will take place in London.
