

2019 Cambridge Corporate Finance Theory Symposium

Call for Papers: Further Information and Requirements

The Cambridge Endowment for Research in Finance (CERF) welcomes submissions for the Symposium to be held in Cambridge UK, 13-14 September 2019.

- Deadline for submitting the paper is 25 February 2019.
- The submitted paper must not have been accepted (or conditionally accepted) at a journal at the time of submission.
- The paper must be in English.
- Please fill in the online form and upload a complete version of your paper (pdf). The paper's cover page must include a title, abstract (max 150 words), authors' names and affiliations, and the email address of the corresponding author.
- All papers will be reviewed by our Programme Committee.
- If your paper is accepted, you will be notified by 30 April 2019 and your name will appear in the confirmed programme for the Symposium.
- The symposium is organized in collaboration with the Journal of Corporate Finance. Papers submitted to the symposium can opt to have their paper considered by the Journal of Corporate Finance under the dual submission review process. Decisions on acceptance of a paper to the symposium do not depend on whether a paper has also been entered for the dual submission review process.

Upon acceptance you will be required to:

- Attend both days of the conference.
- Provide a web link to your paper so that your paper can be advertised on the CERF website.
- Presenters should contact cerf@jbs.cam.ac.uk if they do not wish their paper to be made publicly available. If this is not explicitly done before the conference, we assume it is acceptable to post the paper or a link to the paper on the CERF website.

Presenters will cover the cost of their own travel and accommodation. Accommodation at a discounted rate will be available. Please contact cerf@jbs.cam.ac.uk for further details.

If you have any queries please contact cerf@jbs.cam.ac.uk
