Conferences Grant Project Start Date: Sat, 01/09/2018 Project End Date: Mon, 31/07/2023

We thank the Managers of CERF for the generous support of these conferences.

Project Abstract: This grant supports conferences on empirical finance and big data and is co-sponsored by CERF.

Activities and Achievement: The next Workshop on Big Data in Economics and Finance will be on 15th and 16th May 2023 at Trinity College. CERF managers and members are encouraged to attend the workshop. The CERF Administration may wish to advertise the event on their website if they haven't already done so as CERF is co-sponsor. The logo is displayed on our website and will also be displayed on the programme and other conference material.

Dissemination: We have presented our work at different seminars and conferences around the world.

Outputs: Please see the Outputs attached.

Major Difficulties and Any Other Issues: The event would have happened earlier if it not had been for the pandemic.

Web Links: Please see the conference web page including how to register for the conference here:
