

CERF Mid-Term Award Form

1. Personal Details

Name and Address Please include, name address, position and contact email	Jeroen Dalderop King's College PO Box 418 Phd Student, Faculty of Economics, University of Cambridge jwpd2@cam.ac.uk
Signature (to confirm submission of this form)	Jeroen
Date	25/4/2014

2. Research Update

Research Title and Abstract Please tell us your CERF Funded Research Title and Abstract	Empirical Analysis of Derivative Prices
Milestones to date Please tell us if there are any significant developments in your research (publication of a paper, seminar or conference presentations, creation of or participation in working groups etc., Please itemise	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Submitted my First-Year Research Proposal (+- 10,000 words)</li><li>- Presented my research proposal in the Econometrics workshop in the Economics Faculty</li><li>- Attended four courses which will be examined in May/June 2014</li><li>- Attended several conferences in and out of Cambridge and made</li></ul>

each impact.

possibly useful connections

3. Weblinks to your work

We would like to provide CERF Managers with links to the research output of CERF Funded Projects. Please can you indicate (where possible) links to your outputs, (aside from publications please also include seminars and other academic activities). Please note these links will be used on the CERF website.

- Link to my faculty webpage is on CERF website

4. Additional information

Is there any other information you would like to share with us about your work to date?

The first version of my first paper is expected to be finished by October 2014. Upon approval I will receive the CPGS certificate, which means I formally passed the first-year of my PhD. I will keep you updated on this.

Please return completed form to The Administrator, admin@cerf.cam.ac.uk