

Revised paper on bank scope deregulation and the structure of loan syndicates) will be presented at the CERF Cavalcade, and is available from:

<http://farzadsaidi.com/papers/Scope.pdf>

Major revision of paper on informal finance (currently titled “Networks, Finance, and Development: Evidence from Hunter-Gatherers”) to be expected by November/December 2015.

Publications:

“Target Revaluation after Failed Takeover Attempts – Cash versus Stock” (with Ulrike Malmendier and Marcus Opp), Journal of Financial Economics, forthcoming.

Revise-and-resubmits:

“Are Universal Banks Better Intermediaries?” (with Daniel Neuhann), Journal of Financial Economics.

Seminars:

“Networks, Finance, and Development: Evidence from Hunter-Gatherers” – presented at Cambridge Macro Lunch in November 2014.

Further seminars scheduled for presentation of research on bank scope deregulation, namely at ESMT Berlin, Stockholm School of Economics, and University of Zurich.

Conferences:

Research on bank scope deregulation – presented at European Winter Finance

Conference and Swiss Winter Conference on Financial Intermediation.

Also discussed a paper at Bart Lambrecht's first corporate finance theory symposium in September 2014.